LEADERSHIP / COMMAND / OPERATIONAL PRACTICE

Public Order Command Workshop

Integrating Dialogue into Strategy and Incident Command

FEBRUARY 18–19, 2027

PORTLAND, OREGON, USA

A two-day collaborative workshop for executive leaders, incident commanders and experienced Dialogue Policing practitioners.

Developing practical guidance informed by operational experience and research.

KEY AREAS OF FOCUS

- Strategic leadership and organizational change
- Integrating Dialogue Policing within NIMS/ICS
- Dynamic risk assessment and operational planning
- Command decision-making and proportionality
- Integrating dialogue with wider tactical capabilities
- Learning from real operational case studies

Shaping the future of public order command

Contribute to guidance with national relevance across police agencies.

PARTICIPATION BY INVITATION

Hosted by Portland Police Bureau

Supported by U.S. Department of Justice grant funding and CPRL, The Open University.

For further information, contact Professor Clifford Stott via CPRL:

OUPC@open.ac.uk