

Appendix C: Survey questions

1. What decolonising computing activity are you aware of within your university?
2. What decolonising computing activities have you undertaken with colleagues within your university?
3. What decolonising activities have you undertaken with students within your university?
4. What do you see as the challenges to decolonising computing at your place of work?
5. How concerned are you about the potential biases in technology, such as AI algorithms and data collection methods?
6. Please share any further comments you have regarding decolonising computing